My Testimony

My faith in Jesus Christ didn't just happen one day; it was a culmination of events over a period of time. I think the beginning for me was when my mother died. I remember looking at her body in the casket and thinking to myself, "Where is she?" I could see her shell, but not her. Is this it? Live and die and go nowhere, like evolution taught me in school. No! I didn't believe it. My mother was somewhere, but where? It was a question that seemed to have no answer at the time. Everyone has their opinions but I just didn't trust man, which included any priest or religious folks. I just needed something sure. Over time my family moved out to the Buffalo area. I got a job working on the railroad & there I met a man who told me that someday Jesus Christ was coming back as foretold in the Bible. I later was invited to a church that taught out of the Bible. That was new to me, being raised a Catholic, and it made an impression on me. I was told the Bible was inspired by God. I wanted to believe that, but still just doubted it because I would still have to take someone's word for it and I am very untrusting.

Then someone gave me a book about Bible prophecy. I read fact after fact of all the predictions the Scriptures had foretold. They all came true, 100%. I even checked in the Bible. They were there. I then knew there was something special about the Bible. I now believed that it did come from God. He did inspire it. Then I realized something. If the Bible was right concerning all the predictions it made, then it must be right about all that Jesus Christ did and that He was coming again. And if it is right about that, then it must be right about Heaven & Hell. And if it's right about that, it must be right about me: that I was a sinner separated from God, on my way to Hell, and that I needed to be saved. I thought to myself, eternity is a long time & this is no time to be proud or foolish. The Bible said that Jesus Christ died for my sins & that there was no other way to Heaven except through Him. It said that I needed to believe on Him & receive Him. So I closed my eyes & prayed. I confessed to God that I was a sinner & I needed to be saved. I confessed to God that I believed Jesus Christ is the Son of God & died for me. I called upon Jesus to save me from my sins, cleanse me from all unrighteousness, and give me eternal life in Heaven.

All this I did because I believe the Bible is the truth from God! I'm trusting the salvation of my soul & the souls of my family with the promises found in God's Word. Understanding from the Scriptures that salvation is a free gift & believing the promise of, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13) changed my heart that day. I thought differently & my life changed. I had no more fear of the unknown. I knew that I was going to Heaven when I died. That was 15 years ago & I'm even more sure now of the truth of the Bible & where I'll be when I die.

I'm not perfect, but I am forgiven. It's not what you need to "do" to go to heaven; it's what you need to "have" - Jesus! It's simple, receive Him & you can know for sure too. The Bible says this: "He that hath the Son hath life; and He that hath not the Son of God hath not life." (1 John 5:12) Life is short & temporal. There is nothing here on earth worth missing out on Eternal Life.

Thank you for reading my testimony, John Worth
